Keith and Malinda Blalock lived on Grandfather Mountain. They supported the Union, but Keith was forced to join the Confederate Army. Rather than be left behind, Malinda cut her hair and disguised herself as a man. They both ended up at the Battle of Kinston. "Bushwhackers" is a compelling brand-new musical that tells their story. Presented by the North Carolina History Theater, it runs July 19-21 and 26-28 at Orringer Auditorium at Craven Community College.
