

Auditions!

A new musical by Bill Hand and Simon Spalding based on the Wright Brothers' quest to achieve controlled powered manned flight. The show covers events in the lives of Orville and Wilbur Wright, beginning in their bicycle shop in Dayton, Ohio, and culminating in their successful controlled powered manned heavier-than-air flights of 1903.

Filled with music of the period, audiences will time travel with John Philip Sousa, Scott Joplin and H. W. Petrie, as well as new music by Spalding and Hand.
